

Teaching Leaders

This fully-funded programme is for high-potential middle leaders working in schools in challenging contexts.

With a new focus on improving the quality of teaching, this programme provides participants with the instructional leadership skills to lead on curriculum, assessment and pedagogy.

As the only middle leadership development programme in England that has been independently shown to have an impact on pupil outcomes*, it transforms middle leaders to drive school-wide improvement.

This programme will...

- Inspire your staff to drive change to improve outcomes for pupils
- Transform the quality of teaching and middle leadership in your school
- Arm your staff with new approaches to evidence-based teaching and leadership
- Build a pipeline of talent by getting the best out of staff
- Provide a range of effective assessment and curriculum planning tools
- Train participants in the latest methods of staff development including instructional coaching to improve teaching quality
- Introduce your school to a powerful network of exceptional leaders committed to sharing best practice

If you want your middle leaders to understand clearly what middle leadership is about, how they feed into driving whole school improvement, how they are accountable beyond their classes and for them to be able to devise well-structured action plans, then I would suggest this programme.”

Cathy, Headteacher

Who can apply?

This transformative programme is for primary and secondary schools seeking rapid improvement in teaching and improved outcomes for pupils. It is aimed at middle leaders with a responsibility for teaching and learning – line managers of those on the front line.

Across two years, the programme includes:

- 7 residential training days: 4 in the 2019 summer holidays and 3 in 2020 summer holidays
- 7 development days of face-to-face training with experienced facilitators with school leadership backgrounds
- 9 hours of transformative 1:1 coaching with leaders from schools in challenging contexts
- 5 hours of academic tutoring
- 13 peer group sessions
- 12 hours of virtual twilight sessions
- 2,929: access to a network of thousands of leaders for personal and professional support throughout the programme and beyond

“The residential training event was an unforgettable experience. So much of what I took on board at residential I have been able to share with others in school.”
