

The Portsmouth Teaching School Alliance is running a huge variety of courses this term. For the next two weeks, we have a number of experts delivering the following:

Computing Network (Secondary)

15 January 2020 4-5.30pm

Year 11 mock exam analysis - cross moderate and discuss further peer support that needs to be put in place.

Improving Reading through teaching of Poetry and Non-Fiction text (KS1)

16 January 2020 1-4pm

Heather Rushton leading. The focus of this session will be to develop your teaching practice using non-fiction and poetry texts.

More Able Network

20 January 2020 1-3pm

This session will focus on how research can support teaching More Able pupils with Steve Smith, Director of the HISP Research School.

Curriculum Development and Design Network - Rob Carpenter delivering session

22 January 2020 4-5.30pm

Rob Carpenter will be leading this session, aimed at schools at all stages of designing curriculum intent, thinking through implementation and tracking impact.

Bid Writing - breakfast session

22 January 2020 8-9.30am

This breakfast session will signpost the best places to find bids appropriate for your setting as well as sharing good ways to write a winning bid.

Book at <https://portsmouthtsa.org/courses-1920/>