1. Sri Lanka terrorist attack

The DfE produced a short piece of guidance post the events in Sri Lanka. Mike Stoneman emailed this out on 26.04.19 and it has also been included in the PEP weekly bulletin. In case you haven't seen, it is attached.

2. Stand Up! Education

This is an organisation that runs workshops to:

- raise understanding around issues of discrimination, antisemitism and anti-Muslim hate in a sensitive manner.
- provide practical and responsible strategies to tackle hate crime
- develop students' understanding and confidence in civic and social responsibility in wider society

It is aimed at secondary schools and sessions can be tailored to schools' needs.

All workshops are free of charge. Leaflet is attached. Email Roxana Jebreel roxana@standupeducation.org

3. Fundamental British values

Educate Against Hate have produced a blog on Twinkl setting out what it means to implement fBv in primary schools, and addressing some criticisms about terminology.

4. Prejudicial language reporting tool

A reminder that this is a PAN Hampshire initiative with support from the OPCC.

Karen Thomas sent out this email, along with the reporting tool to Head Teachers on 28.04.19. *We are asking that you send EMAS a copy of the completed report

each time you have had need to use it, either electronically to rubi.giles@portsmouthcc.gov.uk or via internal mail. We are not collecting names of either victims or perpetrators so please can you anonymise the proforma before you send it or we will do that for you this end. The document has some guidance notes attached to it for ease of use, although we do not require you to send this part of the form back to us.

5. Letter from Damian Hinds to NAHT (RSE)

As stated previously, this is not a Prevent issue, however there are wider links to British values and building positive relationships. His letter is attached.

6. Online training from ACT (Action Counters Terrorism)

This is online training from the organisation that developed RUN HIDE TELL. It is suitable for everyone working in a crowded environment - retail, entertainment, sport, education, places of worship - flyer is attached.
