Community	Special	Love	Belonging
We believe that all should have the opportunity to know the truth and that we should reach out and do what we can to bless and help our community		Our Bible says we should love the Lord our God with all of our heart & that we should love our neighbours as we love ourselves.	Our aim is for all walks of life to know they are welcome to our church.

Structure of Visit:

We are available to give tours as well as conduct assemblies on how we share our faith, what it means to us and what we do on a typical Sunday. We also share about our upcoming family events, our weekly events and what we have available for youth and children as well as students, the elderly and young adults. We have something for all ages.

We have visited schools in the past and we would love to continue with this by offering follow-up visits to the schools. We don't typically offer any kind of food.

Presentations are also available upon request if it is something specific.

Can you help a school with their Pondering Time? Yes!

Any pre-teaching desirable/required?

No materials required to be brought unless required by teacher.

Facilities available:

We do have ladies and gents toilets and we can offer cups of water – we also have classrooms if so desired as long as they are requested in advance with timings.

We have a small outside space however no playground equipment.

Directions and parking information:

We are located on the corner but we are in the middle of a community so parking is on the street which is free if you locate one. We can reserve a space in the front for a short time if students are arriving by special transport.

Other essential information that the school may need to know:

We love our community and we love people. We would love for you to visit us!

Preferred mode of address:

First names are fine.

Structure of Visit:

We are part of Harbour Church and have hosted a number of schools in our church buildings (also All Saints Church and St George's Church Portsea). We have previously started with a short presentation about the history of the church/ Church of England in general. Then, age depending, young people have had time to explore the building, including a look at the sound desk and tech system. We've found working in groups to plan a service or welcome event has also been really enjoyable.

We are not able to offer food but are very happy for students to eat their own lunch in the building.

Can you help a school with their Pondering Time?

Absolutely. Always happy to.

Any pre-teaching desirable/required?

In the past it's been helpful when students arrive with a worksheet of questions that we are told about in advance – then we can incorporate the answers in a presentation to encourage active listening.

Community	Special	Love	Belonging
Portsmouth Cathedral is part of a network of overlapping communities in our city and diocese, as well as being a community hub itself.	This is a sacred space, with many treasures, rich in symbolism and meaning.	At the heart of all we offer is love – God’s love for us, our love for him and for our neighbour.	This is a place of belonging for many, but also, as a parish church and a Cathedral, a place which exists for the benefit of all – we have many visitors and participants in events who would not identify as being people of faith, and that is a strength for us.

Structure of Visit:

We can be very flexible on this, and are experienced in tailoring workshops to the curriculum needs of the cohort. There is a room available for lunch, and our team are very happy to do school visits.

Can you help a school with their Pondering Time? Yes!
