

Pasta fun!

What to do:

- Create different patterns with pasta shapes.
- Take a photo of the picture or pattern you create so you can keep it forever.

What you need:

- Different pasta shapes.

Benefits of this experience:

Lots of talking opportunities come from playing with pasta and dry foods as you make pictures. As you talk about the shapes, patterns and images being made, your child will hear you use different words to describe and their vocabulary will grow.

Story and rhyme time:

Visit your local library to find these books:
'Rigatoni the Pasta Cat' by Michael Rosen,
'Spaghetti Hunters' by Morag Hood.

Suitable for:
5 - 10 year olds
